1. Between 11 and 15 October 1950 Soviet troops from the Luftkriegsschule, Dresden-Klotzsche (N 52/F 29), trained almost daily in the area between the Luftkriegsschule and the town of Klotzsche. The troops, who wore red-bordered green epaulets, had dogs with them. Source believes that three units of about 140 men each were stationed in the installation. On 13 October 1950 about 140 soldiers, carrying carbines and field packs, entered the billeting area. Motor vehicles were seen there. *

* Comment. The Luftkriegsschule is occupied by an MVD unit which, on the basis of the report, is estimated at one battalion, presumably of the 138th MVD Regt. The report confirms previous information stating that about 500 troops were quartered there. See
